

Africa Freedom Mission

August Family Trip to Zambia

This summer, Africa Freedom Mission (AFM) will send a team of families to serve alongside our partners in Livingstone, Zambia. Our family team will assist JZone ministries in working with vulnerable children and families in rural Africa through leadership training, kids camps, evangelism and discipleship. This will be a great opportunity for families to serve on mission together!

The team serving in Livingstone will be led by Kyle Smith. Kyle previously served on a team to Zambia in the summer of 2019. After returning, he served on staff with a church in Hendersonville, NC as children's and missions pastor. He has served on mission trips in both Russia and Zambia and is so excited about returning to lead this team in Zambia. Kyle brings experience and leadership which will be such an asset for those
